

The Davis Project for Peace

Website: <http://www.davisprojectsforpeace.org/>

Faculty Advisor / Contact: Ella Turenne Turenne@oxy.edu
Robert Gottlieb gottlieb@oxy.edu

Award Type: Public Service; Graduate Study-Abroad

Who Can Apply:

- Undergraduate students at any of the Davis UWC Scholar schools (including seniors who would complete their projects after graduation) are eligible.
- While the schools included are restricted to those in the Davis UWC Scholars Program, all undergraduates (not just Davis UWC Scholars at those schools) are eligible.
- Groups of students from the same campus, as well as individual students, may submit proposals.
- Note: Again this year, Davis Projects for Peace grants will include selected International Houses around the world, organized by International House, New York.

Description:

Davis Projects for Peace is an initiative for all students at the Davis United World College Scholars Program schools to design their own grassroots projects for peace that they themselves will implement anywhere in the world during the summer of 2010. Through a competition on over 90 campuses, 100 projects will be selected for funding at $10,000 each.

To be considered, a student (or group of students) must prepare a written statement which describes the project (who, what, where, how) including expected outcomes and prospects for future impact (not to exceed two pages) as well as a budget (one separate page). Proposals should include pre-approval of all involved parties and organizations involved in the project. The two-page proposal and one-page budget should be submitted electronically to the designated official at each campus.

The overall program (all 100 projects) is to be worldwide in scope and impact, but specific projects may be undertaken anywhere and as grassroots as desired, including in the U.S.

Award Amount: $10,000 for the implementation of the project.

National Deadline: February 2012*

Oxy Internal Deadline: January 2012*

*Date to be announced Fall 2011.
